

NORMAN H. DACHS

Norman H. Dachs is a founding partner of the firm of Shayne, Dachs, Corker, Sauer & Dachs, LLP, in Mineola, New York, specializing in personal injury and insurance litigation, representing both plaintiffs and defendants. Presently in his 55th year of practice, having graduated from Brooklyn Law School at the age of 21, Mr. Dachs is admitted to practice before all New York State Courts and the United States Districts Courts for the Eastern and Southern Districts and the U.S. Supreme Court.

One of the original featured columnists for the New York Law Journal, Mr. Dachs has co-authored the "Insurance and No-Fault Law" and "Insurance Law" column since 1973. In addition, he has been a contributing author to many books, including Schwartz, Louis E., Trial of Automobile Accident Cases (Matthew Bender, 1958); "Making a Personal Injury Practice Profitable" (PLI, 1972); and No-Fault and Uninsured Motorist Automobile Insurance (Matthew Bender 1984). Mr. Dachs also served as co-editor of several legal publications to which he also contributed lead articles, including Course Handbook, "Art of Evaluating Personal Injury Cases" (PLI, 1972); the New York State Bar Association's "Trial Lawyers Section Digest" (1989-1993) and the New York Negligence Reporter (Matthew Bender, 1989-1993).

In 1978, Mr. Dachs was selected by the Superintendent of Insurance of the State of New York to be one of the original American Arbitration Association No-Fault Master Arbitrators, a capacity in which he still serves. He has also served as a Special Professor of Law at the Hofstra Law School.

A highly skilled appellate advocate, Mr. Dachs has been involved in some of the most well-known, important and widely cited cases in New York's legal history, including Seider v. Roth, Lalomia v. Bankers & Shippers Ins. Co., Figliomeni v. Board of Education of the City of New York, Trimarco v. Klein, Heitner v. GEICO, Nicastro v. Park, and RJC Realty Holding Corp. v. Republic Franklin Ins. Co. He has also lectured extensively at the American Arbitration Association, the Nassau County Bar Association, the New York State Bar Association, the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, the New York State Trial Lawyers Association, the Nassau-Suffolk Trial Lawyers Association, the Society of Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriters, at judicial seminars, as well as various individual insurance company seminars, on all areas of personal injury and liability insurance law, including No-Fault, Uninsured and Underinsured Motorist coverage.